BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS NAMES NEW SUPERINTENDENT TO JICARILLA AGENCY

Robert L. Bennett, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, announced today that Lawrence J. Kozlowski, formerly superintendent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs' Miccosukee Agency, Homestead, Fla., has been appointed superintendent of the Jicarilla Agency, Dulce, N. M.

He will fill the position left vacant by the recent transfer of Ralph B. Armstrong to the post of Project Engineer in the Navajo area. The transfer is effective October 22.

Kozlowski is a native of Illinois and received his bachelor's degree in Education from Roosevelt College, Chicago, where he also took graduate work.

In August of 1951 he joined the Bureau of Indian Affairs as a teacher with the Alaska Native Service, Wrangell, Alaska. In February, 1966, Kozlowski was promoted to the superintendency of the Miccosukee Agency.

He served with the U.S. Navy during World War II as a signalman aboard U.S. merchant ships.

Kozlowski is married and the father of two children.
