CONTRACT AWARDED FOR ROAD SECTION ON NAVAJO RESERVATION

The Department of the Interior today announced the award of a $499,557 contract for construction of an eight-mile section of Navajo Route 8 in the northeastern Arizona part of the Navajo Indian Reservation.

The new stretch of Navajo 8 will link the reservation towns of Ganado and Klagetoh in Apache County with an all-weather, paved highway. The towns are located a few miles south of Canyon de Chelly National Monument, near the Petrified Forest area, a popular tourist locale.

Successful bidder was Nielsons, Inc., of Dolores, Colorado. Three bids were received, ranging to a high of $707,698.
