

Q: What is the role of the Bureau of Indian Affairs?

A: The Bureau of Indian Affairs-Palm Springs Agency provides technical assistance to Indian landowners on matters of real property management. The Bureau of Indian Affairs also holds approval authority for leasing of trust lands on the Agua Caliente Indian Reservation.

The Bureau of Indian Affairs does not represent developers, homeowners or those who lease the land; however the Palm Springs Agency staff is available to answer questions regarding leasing of federal trust lands on the Agua Caliente Indian Reservation.
