CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT FOR TUBA CITY SCHOOL AWARDED

Commissioner of Indian Affairs Morris Thompson announced today that a contract to construct additional school facilities for the Bureau of Indian Affairs' Gray Hill High School at Tuba City, Ariz., has been awarded to the Hunt Building Corporation, El Paso, Texas

The $2.9 million contract requires the construction of three dormitory wings, two annexes to the present gymnasium, a practical arts shop addition and a new student union.

The dormitory additions, when completed, will provide accommodations for 400 students

The Gray Hill School was opened for freshmen students only in September, 1973 -- with the other grades to be initiated in successive years. It serves students from both Navajo and Hopi communities.
