12:30PM ET TODAY: White House to Host Embargoed Press Call Previewing the First-ever Tribal Youth Gathering

WASHINGTON, DC - Today, Wednesday, July 8th, the White House will hold an embargoed on-the-record conference call to preview the first-ever White House Tribal Youth Gathering on Thursday, July 9th. The Gathering will provide American Indian and Alaska Native youth from across the country the opportunity to interact directly with Senior Administration officials and the White House Council on Native American Affairs in an effort to build upon the President's Generation Indigenous (Gen-I) initiative and his commitment to improve the lives of Native youth across the country.

This call will be on-the-record, embargoed for 6:00AM ET, tomorrow, Thursday, July 9th, 2015.

WHO: Secretary of the Interior Sally Jewell
White House Domestic Policy Council Director Cecilia Muñoz
Lillian Sparks Robinson, Commissioner, HHS Administration for Native Americans

WHAT: On-the-record press call, embargoed for Thursday, July 9th 6:00AM ET.

WHEN: Wednesday, July 8, 2015 at 12:30PM ET

RSVP: Members of the media who wish to join this call should dial (800) 230-1093 and ask for the "White House Call." No passcode is necessary.
