RE: Proposed Rule to Revise 25 CFR Part 83

Dear Ms. Appel,

We request that the due date for comments on the proposed rule to amend 25 CFR Part 83 be extended to August 29, 2014 to allow for full consideration and analysis of all testimony given at the public meetings during the month of July. The last public meeting is scheduled to occur on July 29 and comments are now due two days later, August 1, 2014. This due date does not allow adequate time for Tribal participants in the consultation process to incorporate the information gained through that process into their comments. The extension of the comment due date until August 29 will enable those tribes that participate in the consultation process to consider the information they gain through that process in analyzing the proposed regulation and in drafting their comments.

Thank you for consideration of our request. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Valentin Lopez, Chairman
