Indian Affairs - Office of Public Affairs

Media Contact: Lovett 202-343-7445
For Immediate Release: August 28, 1978
Print PDF

Russell A. Bradley, a member of the Kickapoo Tribe of Kansas, has been appointed Superintendent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Winnebago Agency in Nebraska. His appointment is effective September 10, 1978.

Bradley, 36, forked as an accountant for the Cornell Oil Company of Dallas and the Falstaff Corporation in California before moving to North Dakota as business manager for the United Tribes Training Center at Bismarck in 1971. He was subsequently Administrative Officer at the Pierre Indian School in South Dakota. Since 1974 he has been District Representative at the Forth Berthold Agency at New Town, North Dakota.

He is a 1962 graduate of the Haskell Indian Institute and a U.S. Army veteran.