On any issue or question presented to the Shareholder, a vote shall be taken of those members of the EXAMPLE Tribal Council present. The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson must be members of the Board, but the Treasurer and Secretary may be members of the staff of the Corporation. The Treasurer shall serve as Treasurer of both the Corporation and the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall serve as the Secretary of both the Corporation and the Board of Directors. No two persons may hold more than one Board position except that the same person may be Secretary and Vice-Chair or Secretary and Treasurer provided that only a Director may be Vice-Chair. The Chairperson shall preside at Board meetings. The Vice-Chairperson shall assume the duties of the Chairperson in the absence of the Chairperson. The EXAMPLE Tribal Council may appoint one or more of its members as non-voting, ex-officio members of the Board.

Nominations for each open position shall be made and seconded by Council members until nominations cease. The Council shall elect a person to fill each open position from the list of seconded nominations for that position. The Council may choose to vote by voice vote or by written ballot. The person receiving the highest number of votes for each position shall fill that position.

7. No more than two (2) members of the Board may be non-members of the Tribe.

G. Duties of Directors. The Board of Directors shall manage the general affairs and business of the Corporation. The Directors shall in all cases act as a Board, regularly convened, by a majority vote, and they may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of their meetings and the management of the Corporation as they may deem proper, not inconsistent with this Charter, the bylaws of the Corporation and applicable tribal or federal law. A Director shall perform the duties of a Director in good faith, in a manner the Director believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and the shareholder, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person would use under similar circumstances in a like position. In performing such duties a Director shall be entitled to rely on factual information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

1. one or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the Director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

2. legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the Director reasonably believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or

3. a committee of the board upon which the Director does not serve, duly designated in accordance with a provision of the bylaws, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the Director reasonably believes to merit confidence, but the Director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if the Director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

H. Conflicts of Interest.

1. No sitting Board member shall engage in any activity that is, or creates the appearance of, a conflict of interest. A conflict of interest occurs when circumstances create a possibility that a Board member's duty of undivided loyalty to the Corporation might be compromised. Should a conflict of interest develop for a Director, he or she shall state the conflict in writing to the Chairperson of the Board, with a copy to the Shareholders representative. If the conflict cannot be avoided to the satisfaction of the Chairperson and Chairman, the Director shall immediately resign. In the event of a potential conflict of interest, a Director shall recuse himself or herself from any vote involving the potential conflict of interest.

2. No member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, and no husband, wife, parent, child, or sibling of a Board member, shall be a signatory to or beneficiary of any contract or agreement with the Corporation.

3. No member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have any financial interest in any business entity that is a signatory to or beneficiary of any contract or agreement with the Corporation.

I. Directors' Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following the first regular meeting of the Shareholder to elect officers of the Board and the Corporation. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairperson of the Board at any time, and shall be called by the Chairperson or the Secretary upon the request of the EXAMPLE Tribal Council or of two Directors.

J. Notice of Meetings. Notice of meetings, other than the regular semiannual meetings, shall require written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Such notice shall be delivered not less than five (5) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, to each of the Directors. No business other than that specified in such notice shall be transacted at any special meeting. This notice requirement may be waived at any time by individual Directors who do not receive such notice. At any meeting at which every member of the Board of Directors shall be present, although held without notice, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted if the meeting had been duly called.

K. Quorum. At a meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but in the event of a quorum not being present, a lesser number may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. Ex-officio members of the Board shall not be counted in reaching a quorum of the Board.

L. Voting. At a meeting of the Board of Directors, each Director has one vote. Ex-officio members of the Board may not vote. A majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors carries any issue.

M. Meeting Options. Except as otherwise restricted by the bylaws of the Corporation, members of the Board of Directors or any committee designated thereby may participate in a meeting of the Board or committee by means of a conference telephone call or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting. Except as otherwise restricted in the bylaws of the Corporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the Directors, and the consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

N. Resignation and Removal of Directors.
1. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board Chair, and such resignation shall be effective on the date specified in the notice.

2. Any one or more of the Directors may be removed with or without cause at any time by the Tribal Council acting as the representative of the owner. In addition, any one or more of the Directors may be removed for cause at any time by the unanimous vote of the remaining Directors, at a special meeting called for that purpose or at a regular meeting. Cause for removal shall consist of malfeasance, misfeasance or non-feasance of office, gross neglect of duty, misconduct reflecting on the dignity and integrity of the Corporation, or an irresolvable conflict of interest. In addition, any Director who is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board, whether such meetings be regular meetings, special meetings, or a combination thereof, shall be automatically removed.

3. The Director shall be informed in writing of the specific grounds for removal and shall be given a reasonable opportunity to respond in person or through counsel before a decision to remove is made.

4. Any decision by the Board to remove a Director may be appealed to the Tribal Council acting as the representative of the owner. The owner's decision concerning removal shall be final, and shall not be subject to any further appeal or review.

O. Vacancies. Whenever any vacancy shall occur in the Board of Directors by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the same shall be filled without undue delay by the Shareholder at a special meeting of the Shareholder's representative which shall be called for that purpose. Such election shall be held within sixty (60) days after the occurrence of such vacancy. The person so chosen shall hold office until the next regular meeting or until a successor shall have been chosen at a special meeting of the Shareholder.

P. Presumption of Assent. A Director who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken, unless such dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the Director shall file a written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a Director who voted in favor of such action.
