C. Awarding Official’s Technical Representative (AOTR). Designation(s) of Awarding Official’s Technical Representative (AOTR) shall be specific to an individual, and not by position, and shall be appointed by the Awarding Official. The Agency Office program staff, in most instances, shall be appointed as the AOTR. These appointed positions are an extremely important aspect of the contract management team that will be responsible for the successful administration and completion of all P.L. 93-638 contracts. Duties and responsibilities of the AOTR shall include, but are not limited to the following:

(1) Become thoroughly familiar with the terms and conditions of the contract.

(2) Prepares a plan for monitoring the contract and submit it to the Awarding Official within 45 calendar days of receipt of the designation memorandum.

(3) Recommends resolution of questions of fact with regard to quality and acceptability of work performed when determining compliance with the terms and provisions of the contract.

(4) Advises the tribal organization of any violation of the contract terms and provisions, and promptly brings the matter to the attention of the Awarding Official if the tribe or tribal organization fails or is unable to correct or stop the violation.

(5) Reviews any proposed modifications initiated by the tribe or tribal organization and furnishes recommendations regarding their cost, need, etc., to the Approving Official and Awarding Official.

(6) Maintains a working contract file.

(7) Submits semi-annual narrative reports for term contracts and annual narrative reports for mature contracts.

(8) Reviews contract progress reports and recommends approval or disapproval to the Awarding Official.

(9) Ensures that all accountable real and personal property purchased with contract funds or provided as Federal Government furnished property are accounted for, tagged, and inventoried annually, and ensures that laws, regulations, departmental and Bureau directives are followed in the excess and disposal processes.
The responsibilities as AOTR cannot be re-delegated during the appointee’s absence; however, the duties can be re-delegated to a person who is acting for the AOTR. The appointee is not authorized to take any of the following actions:

(a) Enter into supplemental agreements.
(b) Suspend work or issue change orders (modifications).
(c) Grant extensions of time for any reason.
(d) Modify the terms and conditions or provisions of the contract.
(e) Commit the Federal Government (Awarding Official) in any manner.
(f) Terminate in whole or part the contractor’s right to proceed with any part of the work covered by the contract.
(g) Make a final decision that is subject to appeal under the Contract Disputes Act.

D. Budget Official. The Deputy Agency Superintendent – Indian Services and Deputy Agency Superintendent – Trust Services are the Budget Official for their prospective line of authority. The Budget Official shall be responsible for ensuring the validity of funding authority and the availability of funding to prevent deficiency as defined by the Anti-Deficiency Act, 31 U.S.C. Section 1341. Upon receipt of a signed copy of the SF-26 award document or SF-30 modification document and an obligation documents financial transmittal sheet from the Awarding Official, the Budget Official shall:

(1) Ensure the accuracy of the accounting data and if appropriate, certify the validity and availability of funds statement contained on the budget addendum included with the SF-26 or SF-30.

(a) If the accounting data is not valid, the document shall be immediately returned to the Awarding Official for correction.

(b) If the accounting data is valid, obtain a printout of the appropriate budget table to ensure the availability of funds.

(c) If the appropriate table reflects that funds are not available, the document (and a copy of the budget table printout) shall be immediately returned to the Awarding Official for correction.

(d) If the appropriate table reflects that funds are available, sign the certification of validity and available of funds statement included on the copy of the budget addendum sheet attached to the appropriate SF-26 or SF-30, and return the certified award document, obligation documents, and the copy of the budget table printout to the Awarding Official for obligation of funds in PRISM.

E. Finance Official.
2.2 Regional Review and Approval of Contract Proposals. The Regional Director has 90 days after receipt of proposal to review and approve the proposal and award the contract or decline the proposal in compliance with Section 102 of the Act and 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart E. At any time during the review period, the Regional Director may approve the proposal and notify the Awarding Official to award the requested contract. Upon the approval by the Regional Director, the Awarding Official shall award the contract and add to the contract the full amount of funds to which the contractor is entitled under Section 106(a) of the Act. A proposal that is not declined within 90 days (or within any agreed extension under 35 CFR 900.17) is deemed approved and the Awarding Official shall award the contract or any amendment or renewal and add to the contract the full amount of funds pursuant to Section 106(a) of the Act. To ensure that action on the proposal is taken within the 90 day period, there is hereby established a Regional Review Committee. The membership of the Review Committee and their responsibilities shall be as follows:

A. Review Committee. A Review Committee, if needed, shall be responsible for conducting technical review of the contract proposal and shall make appropriate recommendations to the Approving Official to ensure sound decisions are made. The membership of the Review Committee shall consist of the Regional Director, Agency Superintendent, Deputy Agency Superintendent – Indian Services and/or Deputy Agency Superintendent – Trust Services, Supply & Property Management Specialist, Program AOTR, and Self-Determination Specialist. The Self-Determination Officer shall serve as the Chairperson of the Committee. The responsibilities and duties of the Review Committee include, but are not limited to:

1. The Chairperson of the Review Committee shall serve as the official recipient of all initial and renewal contract proposals.

2. The Chairperson of the Review Committee shall within two days of the receipt of an initial or renewal contract proposal prepare a letter for the Approving Official’s signature, notifying the applicant that the proposal has been received.

3. The Chairperson of the Review Committee shall within ten days of receipt of a contract proposal convene the Review Committee to review the proposal and:

   a. Determine that the program plan and design of the tribal organization for the contract operation of the Bureau of Indian Affairs’ program or portion of the program are consistent with the applicable part(s) of Title 25 CFR. If the tribal organization proposal contains a request for a waiver of any provisions of the appropriate regulations ensure that the requirements contained in Title 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart K are met. If it is determined that items required by 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart K are missing, state the specific items and cite the specific regulatory requirement for the missing items.

   b. If the proposal being reviewed is an initial contract proposal, determine that all items required by 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart C, 900.8 have been submitted. If it is determined that items required are missing, state the specific items and cite the specific regulatory requirement for the missing items.
(c) If the proposal being reviewed is a renewal contract proposal, determine that all items required by 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart C, 900.12 have been submitted. If it is determined that items required are missing, state the specific items and cite the specific regulatory requirement for the missing items.

(d) Determine whether there are declination issues under Title 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart E. If it is determined that declination issues exist, state specific objections, and provide with specificity what shall be required of the tribal organization to overcome the state objectives.

(4) If the review of the Committee determines that the proposal meets all the requirements contained in (A)(3)(a) through (c) above, and pursuant to (A)(3)(d) above determines that no declination issues exist, the Chairperson of the Review Committee shall within 15 days of the receipt of the proposal prepare a letter for the Approving Official's signature, notifying the Awarding Official that the proposal is approved and to negotiate and award the contract within 30 days of the receipt of the notification. The Chairperson of the Review Committee shall immediately mail a copy of the signed approval letter to the recipient.

(5) If the review of the Committee determines that the proposal is incomplete and does not meet all the requirements contained in (A)(3)(a) through (A)(3)(c) above, and/or that pursuant to (A)(3)(d) determines that declination issues exist, the Chairperson of the Review Committee shall within 15 days of the receipt of the proposal, prepare a letter for the Approving Official's signature notifying the applicant of the deficiencies and request that the required items be submitted within 15 days of the receipt of the notification. The notification to the applicant shall provide the following specific information and offer technical assistance to overcome the deficiencies.

(a) A listing of all missing items required by Title 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart K, and/or Title 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart C, 900.8 or 900.12 with a citation of the specific regulatory requirement for each missing item.

(b) A listing of all declination issues found pursuant to Title 25 CFR Part 900, Subpart E with specific citations for each stated objection and shall provide with specificity what is required of the tribe or tribal organization to overcome each of the stated objections.

(6) If the information requested under (A)(5) above is submitted by the applicant within the requested 15 days of the notification, the Chairperson of the Review Committee shall convene the Review Committee to review the additional documents submitted by the tribe or tribal organization, and recommend approval or declination of the proposal to the Approving Official.

(a) If the review of the Committee determines that the proposal meets all of the requirements contained in (A)(3)(a) through (c) above, and the tribe has overcome all stated declination issues, the Chairperson of the Review Committee shall prepare a letter for the Approving Official's signature, notifying the Awarding Official that the proposal is approved and to negotiate and award the contract within 30 days of receipt of the notification. The Chairperson shall immediately mail a copy of the signed approval letter to the applicant.
(b) If the information requested under (A)(5) above was requested to overcome stated declination findings, and the review of the Committee recommends that all or a portion of the proposal be declined, the Chairperson of the Review Committee shall prepare a letter for the Approving Official’s signature, advising the applicant:

(1) Of the objections, including a specific finding that clearly demonstrates that (or that is supported by a controlling legal authority) one of the conditions set forth in 900.22 exists, together with a detailed explanation of the reason for the decision to decline the proposal and provide any documents relied upon in making the decision.

(2) Of the applicant’s rights described in 900.31.

(3) That technical assistance is available to overcome the stated objections as described in 25 CFR, 900.30.

2.3 Internal Controls. The Regional Director, the key officials designated pursuant to Section 2.1 and the Review Committee members designate pursuant to Section 2.2 shall ensure that:

A. Documentation. All transactions and other significant events are clearly documented and the documentation is readily available for examination.

B. Recording of Transactions and Events. All transactions and other significant events are promptly recorded and properly classified.

C. Execution of Transactions and Events. All transactions and other significant events are authorized and executed only by persons acting within the scope of their authority.

D. Access to and Accountability for Resources. Access to resources and records is limited to authorized individuals.

2.4 Evaluation of Regional Performance.

A. Responsibility. The BIA Director and Regional Director are responsible for reviewing the Region’s performance and implementing any corrective action to ensure compliancy with the delegate authority.

(1) BIA Director. The BIA Director shall be responsible for conducting management reviews of Regional performance under the delegated authority and shall prepare a report outlining his findings and recommendations to the Regional Director. This review shall be conducted in accordance with the Northwest Regional Office specific implementation plan. Upon completion of the management review, the BIA Director shall prepare a summary report to the Director of Indian Services containing, at a minimum, a status of the delegation of authority.
PROCEDURES FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF DELEGATED
PUBLIC LAW 93-638 AUTHORITY
NORTHWEST REGION

(a) Such report shall include evaluation methodology, tribal input, successes and problems, as well as Regional Office recommendation for permanency of programs for further Bureau of Indian Affairs implementation.

(b) The BIA Director or the designee of the BIA Director shall conduct an independent evaluation of the delegate Region.

(2) Regional Director. The Regional Director shall be responsible for preparing and implementing a corrective action plan to ensure correction of deficiencies identified in the administrative management review, if warranted.

B. Factors. The scope of the management review shall include, but not be limited to an evaluation of the following factors:

(1) The application review and award process in compliance with 25 CFR Part 900.

(2) A random sample of contracts and actions for proper budget certification and fund authority.

(3) A random sample of personal property inventory for accountability.

(4) Proper separation of duties, internal controls, and independence of decision making.

(5) Compliance with the designated duties and responsibilities by key officials, including budget and finance officials.

(6) Compliance by the tribal organization with the terms and conditions of the contracts awarded.

(7) Maintenance of contract files in accordance with 19 BIAM, Supplement 14 as well as 16 BIAM.

(8) A review of the determination and findings of the Awarding Officials.

(9) Any matter which may pertain to waste, fraud, or abuse; and/or conflicts of interest.

(10) Existence of any inappropriate influence on the Approving Official and/or Awarding Official.

(11) Compliance with other applicable special approval and clearance requirements.

(12) Adequacy of training and staffing.

(13) Response and follow-up to audit findings.

(14) Workload of the Awarding Official.

(15) Tribal assessment of the Region’s performance of the delegated authority.
2.5 Technical Assistance. The BIA Director shall be responsible for providing requested or recommended technical assistance to the Region.

2.6 Service Benefits. The Regional Director shall conduct an annual survey of services performed and benefits associated with the implementation of the delegated authority and report findings to the BIA Director in accordance with the Regional Office specific implementation plan.

The Regional Director recommends the Colville, Puget Sound and Yakama Agency submit a Hiring Control Form with justification and funding availability to acquire a Self Determination Specialist in the field. The workload at the Agency warrants an Awarding Official on site.

2.7 Effective Date. This plan shall be effective on the date signed by the Regional Director and the BIA Director. Its provisions shall remain in effect until it is amended, superseded, or revoked by the Regional Director and the BIA Director.
