1.1 Purpose. This chapter provides for the delegation of the authorities of the Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs (DBIA) as provided in 230 DM 1, to the Deputy Bureau Director (DBD), Field Operations and to the BIA regional organizational levels as appropriate to fulfill the responsibilities for those functions, programs, and activities assigned to their organizations.

1.2 Scope. This policy applies to the DBD, Field Operations, the Regional Directors (RDs), and the subordinate BIA regional organizational levels.

1.3 Program Authorities. The DBD, Field Operations is delegated the program and administrative authorities of the DBIA to fulfill the responsibilities identified in 130 Departmental Manual (DM) 6, subject to the limitations identified in 209 DM 8, 230 DM 1.3 and 1.5, and any other stipulations identified within this policy.

1.4 Redelegation of Program Authorities. Except where redelegation is prohibited by statute, Executive Order, or limitations established by other competent authority, including the limitations in this chapter, the general program authorities specifically related to the functions and responsibilities in 130 DM 6, Field Operations may be further delegated. In instances of an absence, the DBD, Field Operations may also redelegate his/her program and supervisory authorities to a RD.

1.5 Limitations on Authorities that are Redelegated.

   A. General

   1. The authorities identified in 209 DM 8.2, 209 DM 8.4B, and 230 DM 1.3 and 1.5, are Exceptions to General Delegations and are not delegated to RDs.

   2. Authority to award and administer Self-Determination contracts and grants to Indian Tribes and Tribal organizations will be redelegated only to employees who are certified under the Awarding Official Certification System (AOCS).

   3. Authority to approve “leasehold mortgages” as defined in 25 CFR 162, and “rights of way mortgages” as defined in 25 CFR 169, may be redelegated only to the Agency Superintendent level.

   4. Authority to approve the acquisition of on-reservation land for non-gaming purposes is redelegated only to the RD level.

   5. Authority to approve BIA Agency fires costing up to $5 (five) million dollars may be redelegated only to the Agency Superintendent level.
B. Performance, Monetary, and Non-Monetary Awards

All award considerations should follow the Department’s policies as documented in 370 DM 451; specifically, 370 DM 451.2, 451.4, and 451.5. Guidance is also provided in 28 IAM 451: Awards and Recognition. Proposed awards must include a justification statement. Appendix A in 370 DM 451.4 provides guidance for evaluating and justifying a proposed award amount. The following additional stipulations apply:

1. Monetary Awards – Individual:
   a. Any proposed award ranging from $2,500 - $5,000 must be reviewed by a RD, and then approved by the DBD, Field Operations.

   b. Any proposed individual awards from $5,001 up to $10,000 must be reviewed by the DBD, Field Operations and DBIA, and submitted to the AS-IA for approval.

   c. Any proposed award over $10,000 must be submitted through the DBD, Field Operations to the DBIA and then to the AS-IA, the Director of Human Resources, and the Department’s Assistant Secretary - Policy, Management and Budget, to the Office of Personnel Management for approval or further processing.

2. Monetary Awards – Group/Team: Not to exceed $10,000 (provided each member in the group/team receives less than $5,000). Any proposed award to a group/team ranging from $5,000 - $10,000 must be reviewed by a RD, and then approved by the DBD, Field Operations. Proposed awards must include a justification statement.

C. Authority to Fill Key Positions

Key positions, including RDs, Deputy RDs, Agency Superintendents, and Field Office Directors, as well as all field positions which are classified at the GS-12 through GS-15 level, must be submitted to the DBD, Field Operations for review. The DBD, Field Operations will then forward the hiring request(s) to the DBIA for review and authorization.

D. Regional Policy Development and Redelegations in the Field

All regional policy, including Regional Directives, Regional Policy Memorandums (RPMs), and Regional Handbooks must be in the current template as provided by the Office of Regulatory Affairs and Collaborative Action (RACA), and developed in coordination with RACA.
Once a regional policy is deemed ‘final’ by the region and RACA, it will be reviewed and surnamed by the regional staff who participated in its development and any applicable regional management, and then routed by RACA to the appropriate RD for surnaming. Once the RD has surnamed, it will route to the DBD, Field Operations for review and surname, and then to the DBIA for final signature. RDs do not have the authority to sign off on regional policies.

Additionally, all redelegations of RD authority other than those specified in this policy must be in writing in the form of a Regional Directive as submitted through the Office of RACA and approved by the DBD, Field Operations. No other form of redelegation is authorized.

1.6 Authorities that May Not Be Redelegated. The DBD, Field Operations may not redelegate the following authorities:

1. Economy Act

2. Approval to carry over annual leave in excess of 240 hours a year due to operational requirements that precluded employees from using scheduled leave

3. Relocation allowances

4. Authorization and approval of actual subsistence expenses for Temporary Duty Travel (TDY) over 10 days

5. Authority to enter into Memoranda of Understanding (MOU)
