1.1 Purpose. This chapter documents the policy, authorities, and responsibilities for wildland fire origin and cause investigations on Indian lands (including Tribal trust, allotted, and restricted title lands).

Wildfire investigations involve a highly specialized process. It is therefore critical that fire origin and cause investigations be conducted, and a complete report prepared, by a National Wildfire Coordinating Group (NWCG)-qualified wildland fire investigator (INVF). This is especially critical when a wildfire originating on Indian land has the potential to result in tort claims, trespass damage recovery, or litigation. Additionally, a fire investigation conducted by an INVF may be required when juvenile fire setting is apparent; there is a history of arson or arson is suspected; or other criminal activity has occurred.

Given the technical aspects and potential legal ramifications of a wildland fire investigation, Indian Affairs (IA) requires that tools used to document wildland fire investigations, such as digital photography, are done so with government or Tribally owned equipment which meets the standards described in 90 IAM 6-H: Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) Wildland Fire Origin and Cause Investigation Handbook.

1.2 Scope. This policy applies to all Tribal and individually held trust and restricted Indian lands under BIA jurisdiction and to all IA programs and staff involved in wildland fire investigations on these lands. This policy may also apply to entities carrying out activities on behalf of BIA under contracts or other agreements if expressly agreed to in the contracts or agreements, or if the requirement to abide by such policy is otherwise required by law. These entities may include contractors or Tribes operating through contracts issued pursuant to Public Law (P.L.) 93-638. Compact Tribes may not be required to abide by the policies contained in this chapter (depending on individual compact language), but are encouraged to use IA policy as guidance. Other federal agencies and programs that are also involved in the administration of Indian forest resources are encouraged to ensure that the standards prescribed herein are met.

1.3 Policy. It is IA's policy to:

- determine the origin and cause of all wildfires occurring on Indian lands and accurately record them in the official system: the Department of the Interior’s (DOI) Wildland Fire Information System (WFMI);

- request that wildfires originating off of Indian lands that result in damages on Indian lands are properly investigated by the jurisdictional authority;

- conduct all wildland fire origin and cause investigations objectively and free from any conflict of interest;
