Dear President Walksalong:

On July 6, 1999, we received the Sixth Renewal of Agreement between the Northern Cheyenne Tribe (Tribe) and the State of Montana (State), approved February 22, 1999. We wish the Tribe and the State success in their economic venture.

SIXTH RENEWAL OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE NORTHERN CHEYENNE TRIBE
AND THE STATE OF MONTANA REGARDING CLASS III GAMING ON THE NORTHERN CHEYENNE RESERVATION

Recitals

The state of Montana (“Montana”) and the Northern Cheyenne Tribe (“Tribe”) entered into an Agreement (“Agreement”) dated September 28, 1993, to authorize under specific conditions Class III gaming on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation. The Agreement has been extended five times while Montana and the Tribe made preparations to negotiate another long-term compact. The Tribe is continuing its investigation of viable options for expanded Tribal gaming operations to provide needed revenues and jobs to the Reservation community.

To enable the Tribe to continue current gaming on the reservation pursuant to the existing Agreement while it endeavors to identify such other options, the parties have determined to extend the Agreement for a sixth time on the terms and conditions set forth below.

This Renewal is entered into in furtherance of Montana Governor Marc Racicot’s Proclamation dated March 10, 1993 affirming the principle and integrity of government-to-government relationships between the State of Montana and federally-recognized tribes located within the borders of Montana.

Agreement

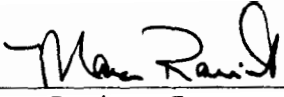

In furtherance of good relations and mutual cooperation between the parties, and in accordance with Article X.A., “Effective Date and Term,” of the existing Agreement as previously extended, by this writing the parties hereby renew and extend the term of the Agreement to February 28, 2000. Further, the parties agree that the Tribe may continue to attempt to negotiate proposed changes in the Agreement and Montana will engage in good faith negotiations with respect to the proposed changes. All terms and conditions of the Agreement remain in full force and effect and shall govern the conditions of Class III gaming on the Reservation until February 28, 2000, or until a revised or new compact has been executed by the parties, whichever first occurs.

Montana and the Tribe indicate their consent to be bound to this Renewal by signature of their authorized representatives below.
