

United States Department of the Interior

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
Washington, DC 20240

DEC 23 2019

Dear CEO:

The Department is proposing a new regulation to establish procedures and criteria for groups to seek Federal acknowledgment as Tribes under the "Alaska IRA" (i.e., under the Alaska amendments<sup>1</sup> to the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934<sup>2</sup>). This proposed regulation would establish an acknowledgment process for entities in Alaska that were not recognized as bands or Tribes before 1936.

The proposed rule is available for your review at the following webpage:

<https://www.indianaffairs.gov/as-ia/raca/regulations-and-other-documents-in-development>

This proposed rule does not affect Tribes that are already federally recognized. If you would like to provide input on the proposed rule, I invite you to attend one of the following consultation or public meeting sessions:

Date	Type	Time	Location
