 Southwest Region: I'm seeking information on several land settlements involving the Ute nation and the Indian claims commission in the 1950s. To the best of my knowledge many of these claims were filed and heard by the commission and this particular case was in the time. Of 1954 to 1957. Basically the treaties of the 1860s were re-examined principally for fairness in the treatment of the nations by the US government land office.
