Hello Vanessa,

Please find attached the OCCA revisions to 25 C.F.R. Part 226 presented the following formats for your convenience:

(1) PDF document showing OCCA revisions in the original "redline" document you sent to Josh (contains revisions and comments from all other reviewers as well as OCCA revisions, which are shown in red). Please note, the original document sent to Josh contained some red text, strikethrough and highlighting which were not part of "track changes" and thus a few minor revisions that appear in red do not belong to OCCA.

(2) Word document showing OCCA revisions in the original "redline" document you sent to Josh (contains revisions and comments from all other reviewers as well as OCCA revisions). The OCCA revisions appear in red on my computer but I understand Word automatically assigns the reviewers' colors and the color of OCCA's revisions may change when you open the document on your computer. AAndrews is the name associated with all OCCA revisions.

(3) PDF document showing OCCA revisions in a "clean" version of the document you sent to Josh (all other reviewers' revisions were accepted and comments deleted, so the black line shows only OCCA revisions, which appear in red).

(4) Word document showing OCCA revisions in a "clean" version of the document you sent to Josh (all other reviewers' revisions were accepted and comments deleted, so the black line shows only OCCA revisions, which appear in red in on my computer, but as explained above may change colors when you open the document on your computer). AAndrews is the name associated with all OCCA revisions.

Please feel free to call me if you have any questions about the attached documents or my notes above. You can reach me on my cell phone number at 678-231-7484.

Have a good weekend,

Amy
