The disclosure of the information is voluntary. Nondisclosure of the information may result in disapproval of the request.
APPROVING OFFICIAL

Deputy Assistant Secretaries, Bureau Directors, or their Deputies may approve the restoration of leave which was forfeited as a result of illness, administrative error, or an exigency to service. If an approving official has a personal interest in the leave restoration decision or might benefit from the decision, the decision shall be made by a higher level authority.

CONDITIONS MERITING LEAVE RESTORATION

Illness – Annual leave which was forfeited may be restored when an illness (or other personal health condition for which sick leave was approved) occurs or lasts so late in the leave year that it is impossible for the employee to use scheduled leave. Discretionary surgery or other situation which could have been foreseen and leave scheduled to accommodate it, is not grounds for leave restoration.

Exigency of the Public Business – An exigency of the public business may be said to exist when circumstances are beyond the control of the employee(s) affected, and the exigency could not have been reasonably anticipated. A sudden call to jury duty or military duty or a project becoming suddenly visible politically or reaching a critical stage at years end are examples of an exigency of the public business. If other employees can be substituted for those who forfeit leave, an exigency does not exist.

Administrative Error – Leave may be restored when it is forfeited as a result of incorrect leave category assignment, an improper determination of creditable service, failure of a supervisor to act timely on a request for leave, or other administrative error.

SCHEDULING RESTORED LEAVE

Annual leave which is restored based on exigency of the service, administrative error, or illness must be credited to a separate account and used no later than the end of the leave year which ends two years after the date the exigency terminated; the leave was restored; or the employee was determined to be fit to return to work, etc. For example, annual leave that was restored in February 1994 has to be used before the 1996 leave year ends.

DISTRIBUTION OF THIS FORM

The form and accompanying documents must be forwarded to the Servicing Human Resources Office. The Human Resources Office will submit the necessary information to the payroll office so that restored hours can be entered into the Personnel/Payroll System.
