RE: INTENT TO PETITION FOR FEDERAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Enclosed is the official resolution with the intent to submit a Petition for the Federal Acknowledgement of the Tolowa-Tututni Tribe of Indians principally located in Del Norte County California.

Currently, research is being conducted by the Tolowa Recognition Project funded by an Administration for Native Americans Status Clarification Project grant under the auspice of Nele-chun-dun Business Council, Incorporated. I am the Project Coordinator, responsible for the coordination of all research compilation.

Please forward all correspondence, inquiries or concerns to Tolowa Recognition Project, P.O. Box 4266, Arcata, CA., 95521. At anytime, do not hesitate to contact me at (707) 822-4007. I am looking forward to working with your office staff as the petition is prepared and submitted for official review and approval.

Sincerely,

Sheryl Steinruck,

TOLOWA RESOLUTION 9/11/82

The TOLOWA-TUTUTNI TRIBE OF INDIANS, located on and around the Tolowa trust lands and ancestral and aboriginal range, submits this PETITION FOR FEDERAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT of its status as an Indian Tribe.

For the purposes of this petition, this tribe's spokesperson is Al Logan Slagle, Esq., Native American Studies, 3415 Dwinelle Hall, University of California, Berkeley, California, 94720, (415) 642-6717.

Nelechundun Business Council, Inc. is authorized to act on behalf of this Tribe.

This Tribe of Indians meets all seven of the criteria found in 25 CFR 54.7 (a)-(g). The Tolowa-Tututni Tribe has been identified from historical times until the present on a substantially continuous basis as "American Indian" or "Aboriginal." (sec. 54.7 (a)). This identification is evidenced by (1) federal authorities, (2) the State of California, (3) Del Norte County, California and Curry County, Oregon, (4) courthouse, church and school records, (5) anthropologists, historians, and other scholars, (6) books and newspapers, (7) other Indian tribes and national Indian organizations. A substantial portion of the Tribe inhabits an area within Del Norte County, California, in and around Smith River and Crescent City, California, as its ancestors have done since about 1000 B. C. This tribal community is distinct from other populations (sec. 54.7 (b)). The Tolowa-Tututni Tribe has maintained tribal political influence or other authority over its members as an autonomous entity throughout history until the present (54.7 (c)). The membership is composed principally of persons who are not members of any other North American Indian tribe 54.7 (d). Finally, neither the Tribe nor its members are subject to Congressional legislation which has expressly terminated or forbidden the Federal-Indian relationship. (54.7 (g)).

The Tolowa-Tututni Provisional Tribal Council, in Council duly assembled and at which a quorum was assembled, on September 11, 1982, adopted the above Resolution by a vote of 9 for, 0 against, 0 abstaining. It has not been altered in any way, and represents in substantial form the letter to be presented to the U. S. Government for Federal Recognition.
