THE CONSTITUTION OF THE SCHAGHTICOKE INDIAN TRIBE

PREAMBLE:

We, the people of the Schaghticoke Indian Tribe, (SIT) hereby adopt this Constitution in order to: Promote the common good and well-being of the SIT; Protect and preserve our culture and traditions including our language, arts and crafts, and archeological sites; Protect our land, water and natural resources; Promote and protect the health and welfare of our people; Encourage and promote educational opportunities for members of the SIT; Foster economic development; Protect the individual rights of our members; Acquire additional lands for the benefit of the SIT; Promote self-government and ensure the political integrity of the SIT; Preserve, secure and exercise all the inherent sovereign rights and powers of an Indian Tribe.

ARTICLE I- TERRITORY AND JURISDICTION:

Section 1. Territory.

The territory of the Schaghticoke Indian Tribe, (SIT) shall include, to the fullest extent possible consistent with applicable law, all lands, water, property, airspace, surface rights, subsurface rights and other natural resources in which the SIT now or in the future has any interest, which are owned now or in the future by the SIT or by the United States or the State of Connecticut for the exclusive or non-exclusive benefit of the SIT or for individual SIT members, or which are located within the boundaries of the reservation now existing in Kent, Connecticut or which may be established for the SIT, notwithstanding the issuance of any right-of-way.

Section 2. Jurisdiction.

Except as prohibited by applicable law, the Schaghticoke Indian Tribe shall have jurisdiction over all SIT members and over all persons, subjects, property and all activities occurring within its territory as defined by this Article. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to limit the ability of the SIT to exercise its jurisdiction, based upon its inherent sovereignty as an Indian tribe.

ARTICLE II – DESIGNATION OF FAMILY CLANS:

The Schaghticoke Indian Tribe shall continue to be comprised of members who are direct descendants from one or more of the historical Schaghticoke core families that trace their origins to the 1 Schaghticoke ancestors from at least 1884. SIT shall be governed by a five (5) member Council.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP:

Section 1. Criteria for Enrollment:

Any person who can document their direct descent from one or more of the SIT recognized families are entitled to be enrolled as a member of the SIT.

Section 2. Enrollment:

The SIT Council shall have the responsibility of implementing the enrollment ordinance as referred to in section 3.

Section 3. Enrollment Ordinance:

The SIT Council shall enact ordinances which will specify the procedures which must be followed by any person who is applying for SIT membership. Upon initial adoption of a membership ordinance, no subsequent membership ordinance adoption or amendment shall be effective unless it is approved by a minimum of three-fourths majority of the SIT five (5) member council.

Section 4. Limitation:

No person shall qualify for membership in the SIT who is a member of any other organized tribe, band or Indian community, whether or not it is recognized by the Secretary of the Interior or the State of Connecticut, unless he or she has relinquished in writing his or her membership in such tribe, band or community.

Section 5. Transfer of Membership.

Membership in the SIT is not transferable or assignable.

Section 6. Resignation and Removal.

A member may resign at any time by written notice filed with the SIT Secretary. A SIT member may be removed at any time, with cause, by the affirmative vote of a minimum of three-fourths majority of the SIT Council, and a member shall be removed, upon clear and convincing evidence, presented to the SIT Council, that such person does not meet the criteria for membership as set forth in Section 1 of this Article III.

Section 7. Loss of Membership.

All relinquishments of membership in the SIT shall be done in writing in accordance with the procedures established by an enrollment ordinance. The SIT Council shall remove from the SIT membership roll the name of any person who voluntarily relinquishes his or her membership in the SIT in accordance with such procedures. Any member of the SIT who is or becomes a member of any other organized tribe, band, or Indian community shall be disenrolled by the SIT Council in accordance with the procedures established by an enrollment ordinance.

Section 8. Reinstatement.

Any person, who relinquishes his or her membership in the SIT or who has been disenrolled from the SIT pursuant to Section 8 above, shall be reinstated as a member of the SIT by the Tribal Council in accordance with the provisions of the enrollment ordinance.

Section 9. Voting.

Each enrolled member of the SIT, who is at least eighteen (18) years of age, shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of members. At all meetings of members, a member may vote in person, by fax, electronic email or teleconferencing. Elections of SIT Council members may be conducted by mail, fax, electronic email or teleconferencing in accordance with Article VIII.

Section 10. Meetings.

The annual meeting of the SIT members, beginning with the year 2022, shall be held in September of each year at the office of the SIT, or at such other place and at such time as may be provided by resolution of the SIT Council. Special meetings of the SIT members may be held at any time by the call of the SIT Council or by members having 35% of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting. Special meetings shall be held at the office of the SIT, or at such other place as may be provided by resolution of the SIT Council.

Section 11. Notice of Meetings.

Written notice to each SIT member entitled to vote stating the place, day and hour of the meeting, and in case of a special meeting, stating the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be mailed and postmarked not less than five (5) days before the date of the meeting or emailed to all SIT members who have an email address on file with the SIT Office and will be at the direction of the SIT Council Secretary.

Section 12. Quorum.

Members holding 30% of the votes entitled to be cast represented in person, or by teleconferencing at a meeting of the SIT membership, at which time eligible voters from not less than a majority of the SIT with members enrolled are represented in person or by teleconferencing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present or by teleconferencing within the SIT shall be the vote of the entire SIT. The vote of the majority of the SIT present or by teleconferencing shall be necessary for the adoption or decline of any matter voted upon by the SIT members, unless a greater proportion is required by law or this Constitution.

Section 13. Membership Roll.

The SIT Council shall maintain a membership roll of all current and former tribal members.

ARTICLE IV - CIVIL RIGHTS:

Section 1. Civil Rights Generally.

The SIT Council, in the exercise of its sovereign powers of self-government, shall not:

(a) make or enforce any law prohibiting the free exercise of religion, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the SIT people peaceably to assemble and to petition for redress of grievances;

(b) violate the right of the SIT people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, nor issue warrants, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and person or thing to be seized;

(d) compel any SIT person in any criminal case to be a witness against himself,

(e) take any private property for a public use without just compensation;

(f) deny to any SIT person in a criminal proceeding the right to a speedy and public trial, to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, to be confronted with the witnesses against them, to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in their favor, and at their own expense to have the assistance of counsel for their defense and to have these rights explained at the time of arrest;

(g) require excessive bail, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel and unusual punishments;

(h) deny to any SIT person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of its laws or deprive any person of liberty or property without due process of law;

(i) pass any bill of attainder or ex post facto law, or

(j) deny to any SIT person accused of an offense punishable by imprisonment the right, upon request, to a trial by jury of not less than six SIT people.

Section 2. Full Disclosure and Equal Opportunity.

The members of the SIT are guaranteed full disclosure of information concerning the governance of the SIT and an equal opportunity to participate in all SIT programs and business activities. This Article shall be interpreted liberally and shall favor disclosure.

Section 3. Rights of Members:

In furtherance of the basic principles stated in Section 2 of this Article, the SIT Council shall:

(a) permit SIT members to attend any meeting in which SIT business or governance is being discussed, except those meetings wherein personnel or membership matters are being resolved.

(b) allow the opportunity to inspect all audit reports which examine the financial condition of the SIT, including but not limited to, annual audits of funds expended to benefit the SIT or any audit done in connection with a SIT enterprise or any partnership in which the SIT may be involved.

(c) SIT members shall have the right to inspect any and all employment or consulting contracts which have been entered into between the SIT and individuals covered by these contracts.

Section 4. Claims:

The SIT Council shall hear all claims arising under the provisions of this Article unless a SIT court system is adopted by the SIT.

ARTICLE V - THE SIT COUNCIL

Section 1. The SIT Council.

The governing power of the Schaghticoke Indian Tribe shall be vested in the tribal council, which shall be known as the SIT Council (Tribal Council). Each SIT Council member shall be an enrolled member of the SIT. The current Council shall be for a four (4) year term and then elected each two years after. (2026).

Section 2. Terms of Office.

The terms of office for all SIT Council members, shall be four (4) years or until their successors are duly elected and installed in office, except that those persons holding any SIT office at the time this Constitution is adopted shall continue in office until the next annual general membership meeting to be held in 2003, at which time one seat from each Clan shall expire and that council seat shall be filled in accordance with Article VIII. There shall be no limitations on serving consecutive terms on the SIT Council. Each SIT Council member must continue to meet the Clan affiliation requirements set forth above for his or her respective SIT Council seat during his or her term of office.
